When A* saw her mother at her mother's home in Group No. 12, No. 14 Village, Bulaqsu Township, she said: "When my mother was taken away by the police, she was fine. Now my mother is dead. I think the police killed her. I will avenge my mother."

Intelligence verification: Ayjamal Sultan, student, no phone, no trajectory, no transmitted information.

Work requirements: 1. The Bulaqsu Police Station is to investigate and ascertain Ayjamal Sultan's religious extremist thinking, observed behavior, and other circumstances.

2. The Bulaqsu Police Station is to investigate A* and secure evidence, and to carry out monitoring and control work.

(III) Reported by the Mush Police Station: On October 13, 2018, the husband of Qurbannisa [REDACTED] (female, Uyghur, [REDACTED], mobile phone number [REDACTED], farmer), a resident of [REDACTED], Qurban Rozi (ID number: [REDACTED]), reported: He doesn't have a good relationship with his wife, and Qurbannisa [REDACTED] has not returned to the jurisdiction since going out on August 10, 2018. She does not answer calls, which get through but she never answers. Following investigation, it was found that this person has been active in Kashgar City, but the specific address and movement trajectory are unknown. This person has recently been emotionally unstable and is under focused monitoring.

Intelligence verification: Qurbannisa [REDACTED], no tags, this person has been continuously active in Kashgar City since August 10, and has frequently stayed at the Kashgar City Haitian Xinyang Hotel and the Kashgar City Tianyi Hotel; the latest record is from 2018-09-28 05:51:05, when she checked into the Kashgar City Tianyi Hotel, room number: 1208.

Work requirements: 1. The Mush Police Station is to promptly investigate Qurbannisa [REDACTED]'s specific whereabouts and employment situation.

2. The Mush Police Station is to talk with both parties, advise them, and carry out proper mediation.

(IV) Reported by the Bulaqsu Police Station: Abdunebi [REDACTED] (male, Uyghur, [REDACTED], a second-year student at the Bulaqsu Township Middle School), a resident of [REDACTED] in the jurisdiction, and Hezti'omer [REDACTED] (male, Uyghur, [REDACTED], a second-year student at the Bulaqsu Township Middle School); on the afternoon of September 20, 2018, while the two of them were helping a teacher clean the school library and organize books, they discovered a book titled "World Classic Weapons: A Visual Guide" and some picture books of tanks, which they took home to read. After the village cadres discovered this, they took the books away. Later, Hezti'omer [REDACTED]'s father, [REDACTED], found the book titled "World Classic Weapons: A Visual Guide" and turned it over to the police substation. Afterwards, when Abdunebi [REDACTED] heard about Hezti'omer [REDACTED]'s father turning in the book, Abdunebi [REDACTED] also turned over the book(s) in his possession to the school. The contents of the book included: the composition of various firearms, pictures of firearm disassembly, and explanatory notes. Further investigation is underway.

Intelligence verification: Abdunebi [REDACTED] and Hezti'omer [REDACTED] are both students, with no trajectories, no record of transmission, and no one in their families taken into custody or taken for education.

Work requirements: 1. The Bulaqsu Police Station is to promptly carry out a thorough inspection and investigation of the above 2 students, so as to determine whether they possess other extremist thoughts.

2. The Bulaqsu Police Station is to place the above two persons under focused monitoring.

(V) Reported by the education-and-training police brigade: At 12:30 AM [sic] on October 13, 2018, the People's police conducting security checks at the No. 1 entrance of the center discovered, while conducting the security check of a trainee's family member, a piece of paper containing Arabic writing in the pocket of the trainee's family member having come for a family visit. Upon investigation, it was found that: at 12:30 AM [sic] on October 13, 2018 in the center's visitation area, Horigul Inayet (ID number: 653121195005100048;
